"Since 2010, Lumina Infotech has been a trusted technology partner for businesses across India - delivering reliable websites, web applications, and digital marketing solutions that drive real business results."

From a Small Web Shop to a Full IT Partner

Founded in 2010 by a team of experienced IT professionals, Lumina Infotech started out focused primarily on web development and custom software. As digital transformation became essential for businesses of every size, we expanded to cover the full IT spectrum – website design, custom software, mobile apps, and digital marketing, one team, one point of contact, for whatever a project needs.

OUR VISION

To become India's most trusted IT solutions partner, empowering businesses of all sizes to achieve digital excellence through innovative technology solutions.

OUR MISSION

To deliver exceptional IT solutions that exceed client expectations, foster innovation, and build long-term partnerships based on trust, transparency, and excellence.

"We'd rather build you a real, working website or system that you can point to and say 'my agency built that' than hand over a templated site that looks like everyone else's. Most of our clients stay with us for updates, support, and new projects for years after launch – that's the relationship we're built for."

One Coordinated Strategy, Not Isolated Channels

Digital Marketing is our full-spectrum online marketing service, combining SEO, social media optimization (SMO), pay-per-click advertising (PPC), and email marketing into one coordinated, ROI-focused strategy rather than a single channel in isolation. We provide it as an ongoing service with monthly reports and strategy reviews – not a one-time project.

Native or Cross-Platform, Built Right

Mobile app development is the process of building software applications for smartphones and tablets, either as native apps (Swift for iOS, Kotlin for Android) or cross-platform apps (React Native, Flutter) that run on both from one codebase. We build both types, with typical delivery in 8-16 weeks including App Store and Google Play submission.

How We Build Your Website & Software

From first call to long after launch, our process keeps your IT project clear, predictable and on-time.

01

Discovery & Requirement Call

We understand your business, target audience and goals – whether you need a website, custom software or digital marketing.

02

Planning, Sitemap & Proposal

We prepare the right technical plan, sitemap, features list, pricing and timeline – so you know exactly what you'll get.

03

Design, Development & Testing

Our UI/UX and development team design the interface, write clean code, integrate features and test on real devices.

04

Launch & Ongoing Support

We launch your project, monitor performance and provide continued support, updates and marketing as your business grows.

05

A Long-Term Digital Partner, Not a One-Time Vendor

Most of our client relationships continue well past launch – new features, ongoing SEO, and regular check-ins as your business grows and your website or software needs to grow with it.
